

American Society of Victimology's Spring 2007
Board of Director's Nominations Announcement

Every year the ASV's Board of Directors announces a call for nominations for its Board. Currently the Board has four vacancies.

At the 5th American Symposium on Victimology, the announcement was made for nominations which will stay open until April 30th, 2007. Thus far, a number of nomination have been made from those who attended this past symposium; however, the Board would like to give all our members in good standing the opportunity to nominate, regardless as to whether they were in attendance at the symposium or not.

Thus, if you would like to nominate yourself or someone else, please follow these instructions:

- 1. Insure that the nominee is a member in good standing of ASV.
- 2. Provide contact information* the nominee's full name, organizational affiliation, address, telephone number and email.
- 3. Submit either a CV, a résumé, or a bio.
- 4. Have the nominee sign the ASV BMS Agreement* (see below).
- 5. Insure that all of the above three *documents are sent via fax or regular post to Professor John Dussich at (559) 278-7265 to be received by the end of the day on April 30th, 2007.

ASV Board Member Service Agreement: “I _____ understand the responsibilities, and agree to perform the duties, of ASV Board membership. I will attend the two annual Board of Director's meetings each year of my tenure (one held at the annual symposia and another mid year meeting as scheduled); that I will participate in the periodic Board Meeting conference calls (at least two per year); that I will chair or co-chair at least one of the Board's committees; and, that I will support the activities of the ASV and comply with the Society's By-Laws and Board Policies to the best of my ability.”
